HOW PARENTS CAN HELP THE SCHOOLS

The following is taken from the Report of the Boston School Committee.

To visit the schools yourselves, and to become acquainted with principals and teachers who have charge of your children.

To keep your children in school as long as you are able to do so and can influence them to stay, until they have received all the education that the city is willing and able to give them, and thus better fit them to succeed in life.

To teach your children to respect the laws, constituted authority, and the rights of others, and to help them to become upright, truthful, self-respecting men and women.

To read this report, and thus learn more about the different kinds of schools the city carries on for the benefit of yourselves and your children.

To remember that the school committee is just as interested as you are in the welfare of your boys and girls, and though its principal and teachers, or directly, as you may prefer, is glad to receive from you any suggestions or criticisms that you may desire to offer, and to give them careful and thoughtful consideration.

To do your part in helping and supporting the public schools, because a good public school system is of more real value to you and your children than anything else the city can provide.

LONDON PAPERS PRAISE THE NEW PRESIDENT

London, March 4.—The London morning papers congratulate the United States on the new President. The Morning Post, discussing at considerable length the problems facing America, says:

"Woodrow Wilson comes to the Presidency when the old days are over and a new era is approaching. Few American Presidents have entered office so well equipped; few have faced so many difficulties."

The Daily Graphic says: "Woodrow Wilson has impressed the Anglo-Saxon race of both the New and Old Worlds with his sterling honesty. That is the quality above all others which democracies need, and Americans must be congratulated upon having found such a man for chief magistrate."

The Chronicle says that Mr. Wilson represents the "new spirit" visible in more than one country, but nowhere so clearly as in America. "The progressive world looks for much from him," the paper adds.

The Daily News says: "The world looks to Woodrow Wilson for an example of wise abstinence from aggression and adventure, reasonableness in international discussions, and active initiative in further peace."

Chronic Stomach Trouble Cured

There is nothing more discouraging than a chronic disorder of the stomach. Is it not surprising that many suffer for years with such an ailment when a permanent cure is within their reach and may be had for a trifle? "About one year ago," says P. H. Beck, of Wakelee, Mich., "I bought a package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and since using them I have felt perfectly well. I had previously used any number of different medicines, but none of them were of any lasting benefit." For sale by all dealers. (Adv.)

A Strong Endorsement

W. H. Holmes of the Decorah, Ia., Journal says: "I have been a sufferer from Piles and Hemorrhoids for years. I got no relief until my druggist recommended Meritol Pile Remedy. Before I had taken half the package the distress was gone and I have had no trouble since. I would not take a thousand dollars and be back in my former condition." Brown & Hagler, Exclusive Agents.
